SENIOR OFFICER COUNTER-INSURGENCY AND SPECIAL WARFARE ORIENTATION

The Department of the Army has announced a new course, Senior Officer Counter-Insurgency and Special Warfare Orientation, to be conducted at the Special Warfare School, Fort Bragg, North Carolina. The course is designed to provide senior commissioned officers and civilian personnel of the U. S. Government with a general knowledge of the latest doctrine and concepts of special warfare, with emphasis on counter-insurgency operations, paramilitary support forces, special forces operations, and psychological operations. It is one week long. Eight runnings are scheduled for Fiscal Year 1963. Course numbers and dates are:

1-63	15 to 20 July 1962
2-63	26 to 31 August 1962
3-63	23 to 28 September 1962
4-63	28 October to 2 November 1962
5-63	2 to 7 December 1962
6-63	3 to 8 February 1963
7-63	3 to 8 March 1963
8-63	12 to 17 May 1963

The Agency has a quota of two spaces for each presentation. It is intended that one of the two be filled by an Agency reserve officer on active duty training and the second in each running be used by a civilian officer.

The course is open to military personnel in the grade of Colonel or higher and to civilians of comparable rank. Civilians in grade GS-14 are eligible provided they have background in UW or counter-insurgency.

Agency reservists have already been given instructions on applying for this course as active duty training. Civilians should submit Form 136, "Request for Training at Non-CIA Facility," to the External Training Branch immediately for the 15 July course, and for all others, at least 30 days in advance of the starting date.
